The Cottage

North Cornwall

Country Chic Dog Friendly

A beautiful 300-yr old detached cottage. Spacious, country chic, self-catering accommodation for discerning guests and their dogs

What to Expect

Nestled in the North Cornwall countryside, The Cottage sits next to its own village green in the sleepy little hamlet of Trelash.

Equidistant between Bude and Launceston, the nearest beach is just 10 mins away at Crackington Haven.

Once owned by the same family for over 5 generations, this 18th Century cottage is a typical white-washed Cornish cottage topped with a Delabole rag slate roof. The Cottage has been tenderly renovated to provide a luxury home-from-home holiday retreat..

Internally, original flagstone flooring adorns the spacious and homely kitchen diner. Throughout, The Cottage has been lovingly furnished with up-cycled and reclaimed, farmyard finds and antiques, marine light fittings and family heirlooms. Old trunks, chests and oiled filled lights adorn the cottage giving this luxury self-catering home a truly homespun warmth.
